SEVEN candidates are vying for votes as they try and win the Oxford West and Abingdon seat in today's general election.

Conservative candidate Nicola Blackwood, Liberal Democrat Layla Moran, Labour's Sally Copley, Green representative Larry Sanders, Ukip's Alan Harris, Helen Salisbury of the National Health Action Party and Mike Foster from the Socialist Party of Great Britain are all standing for the seat.

Ms Blackwood won the seat at the 2010 election by less than 200 votes from former Liberal Democrat MP Evan Harris, making it the seventh closest constituency in the country.

And all of Vale of White Horse District Council's and Abingdon Town Council's seats are up for grabs in today's election.

The polls are open until 10pm this evening for residents to cast their votes.

See pages 5, 6 and 9 for more election coverage.

Teen sentenced after student sex assault

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE 17-year-old who sexually assaulted Oxford University student Ione Wells has been given a 24-month detention and training order after he was sentenced yesterday at Highbury Corner Magistrate's Court.

The teenager, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was also ordered to sign on the Sex Offenders Register for five years, after he pleaded guilty to one count of sexual assault at the first hearing back on April 13.

The defendant followed 20-year-old Ione home in the early hours of April 11 and attacked her near her home in the Primrose Hill area.

Ione's screams alerted the nearby neighbours, which led to the teenager running off before he was arrested shortly after.

Geralit Evans, Crown Prosecution Service London deputy chief crown prosecutor, said: "Ione has shown real courage throughout this case – this was a terrifying attack which no one should have to experience."

The sentence given to the teenager means that he will spend 12 months in custody before spending the next year on licence.

Miss Wells has waived her right to anonymity to launch the '#NotGuilty' campaign, which encourages victims to come forward as the assaults are never the fault of the victim.

Ione wrote an open letter published in The Cherwell, a newspaper by Oxford University students, that sparked a strong public reaction to her assault.

The emotionally worded letter describes the ordeal that Iona faced, stating: "When you pushed me to my knees until my face bled, when I wrestled with your hand just enough so that I could scream..."

The letter was written for those that have equally been affected and should act as support for them to come forward.

The letter reads: "This letter is not really for you at all, but for the victims of attempted or perpetrated serious sexual assault and every member of their communities."

Arson accused admits causing SODC office blaze

• The blaze that engulfed SODC and Vale of White Horse offices in Crowmarsh Gifford

• Firefighters hosing down the flames at the decimated SODC and Vale of White Horse offices.

THE man accused of burning down South Oxfordshire District Council's offices back in January admitted starting the fires at a hearing at Oxford Crown Court last Thursday.

Andrew Main, 47, of Rokemarsh, near Wallingford, pleaded guilty to four counts of arson in a plea and case management hearing.

He also pleaded not guilty to a further charge of arson with intent to endanger life.

Main was charged after three fires broke out overnight at South Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse District Council's shared offices in Crowmarsh Gifford on January 15.

The charges also relate to a fire at Howard Chadwick Funeral Service in Crowmarsh Gifford and a thatched house in Quakers Corner, Roke Marsh, which started 10 minutes from each other shortly after 3am on the day.

Main's defence barrister, Adrian Amer, previously told the court on April 16 that Main was suffering from psychosis, but he had been ruled fit to plea prior to the hearing.

The accused had previously appeared in court on January 30 via a video link at Bullingdon Prison, but had refused to speak.

Main will appear at the court on May 29 after Judge Ian Pringle ordered a further psychiatric report.

New NHS CEO

OXFORD: The Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust has announced the appointment of its new chief executive.

Dr Bruno Holthof will commence work in the new position from October 1 and replaces the outgoing Sir Jonathan Michael, who has held the position for five years.

Dr Holthof has been chief executive of ZNA, a network of specialised hospitals in Belgium, for the last 10 years.

He said: "Oxford has the talent and technology to create breakthrough innovations that will improve the health of the local population and also have a global impact."

Stadium fire

OXFORD: A small fire that broke out in the East Stand of the Kassam Stadium in Grenoble Road on Monday evening caused no serious damage to the stadium.

The fire was 'quickly contained', according to a statement by the ground's occupants, Oxford United.

The club said: "The incident is currently under police investigation and we would not be able to comment further at this time."

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service put out the fire by 6.15pm and Thames Valley Police confirmed they are investigating the incident for suspected arson.

Tree rescue

MINSTER LOVELL: Fire crews rescued a man on Tuesday morning who was trapped beneath a large overblown tree in Minster Lovell.

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service were called at 9.25am and two fire crews from Witney Fire Station and the Rescue Tender from Kidlington were also in attendance.

Trauma trained staff from the service used specialist cutting equipment to remove the tree and release the trapped victim beneath it.

The man, thought to be in his 30s, was taken to John Radcliffe Hospital after suffering chest and head injuries.

Woman in fatal road collision

A WOMAN was killed and two police officers injured in two separate collisions in Oxford on Friday night.

A female pedestrian, in her 20s, was involved in a collision with a grey Toyota Avensis around 11.46pm along the A40 Northern Bypass and was declared dead at the scene.

The driver was uninjured.

In a separate incident later that night, a vehicle then collided with two male police officers in a marked police car, who were protecting the scene of the earlier incident.

A blue Toyota Auris collided with them on the westbound carriageway of the A40 Northern Bypass road.

Both officers were taken to John Radcliffe Hospital with injuries.

One sustained hip injuries and remains in hospital, whilst his colleague sustained a knee injury and whiplash.

The driver of the Auris, a woman in her late 20s, suffered minor injuries but did not require hospital treatment.

Police are appealing for witnesses to come forward and contact them on their non-emergency number 101 with any information in regards to both incidents

Thousands flock to Abingdon's air show

HEAVY downpours weren't enough to dampen the spirits of the thousands of people who headed to Abingdon Airfield for the annual air show on Sunday.

Air displays began at 1pm and included demonstrations from the Twister Aerobatics Duo, the Rockwell OV10 Bronco and the Renegades Parachute Team.

The star attraction was a display commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, and saw a historic Spitfire and a modern day Eurofighter Typhoon fly together in formation.

While on the ground there were dozens of static aircraft, as well as tank rides, Second World War re-enactment groups and live music.

And the entire event was organised by a team of six volunteers, who have been planning this year's show since September in their spare time.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"All things considered bearing in mind the weather was challenging, to put it mildly, it was a fantastic day," said Colin Smith, one of the air show's organising committee.

"Obviously the weather did have an effect – not all the aircraft could fly and not all the aircraft could get in to us from other airfields.

"But we did persevere and carry on, and produce as good a flying display as we possibly could given the weather conditions."

With regard to the Battle of Britain display, Colin added: "That went down very well indeed.

"We had to rejig that a little bit, but we just about got a nice weather window for it."

The air show was again raising money for the Thames Valley Air Ambulance.

While the total raised from this year's event won't be known until the summer, the show has raised more than £50,000 for them over the past eight years.

Leading role on stage for college lecturer Nicola

A LECTURER at Abingdon and Witney College is taking to the stage at the end of this month to star in the hit musical production of Legally Blonde at Oxford's New Theatre.

Nicola Blake, who teaches performing arts in Abingdon, will play the lead role of Elle Woods in the show.

After being dumped by her boyfriend, Elle follows him to Harvard Law School to win him back.

The stage version is based off the 2001 film starring Reese Witherspoon, and has won seven major honours including Best Musical at the Olivier Awards in 2011.

"I am really excited about getting to play Elle in Legally Blonde," said Nicola.

"It's been a very busy few months rehearsing but I've enjoyed every second.

"I'm extremely grateful for the support so far from my colleagues and I am looking forward to having my biggest critics in the audience – my students!"

Hannah James, head of the Creative Faculty at the college, added: "Nicola is an outstanding teacher.

"She leads our performing arts course with excellent results.

"I am very proud of Nicola, as are her students, and it is great for them to be taught by someone who knows and works within the industry."

The show at the New Theatre, on George Street, is running from May 27 to 30.

Next mayor

ABINGDON: The new mayor of Abingdon is set to be appointed at the town council's meeting next Wednesday.

Current mayor, independent councillor Angela Lawrence, and deputy mayor, Liberal Democrat Helen Pighills, will relinquish their titles on May 13 for their successors to take over.

The two councillors to take on the roles will depend upon the results of the town council elections, being held today.

Antiques expert

ABINGDON: Residents will be able to get their antiques valued by television expert Michael Welch at the Unicorn Theatre on Saturday,

Michael, who has appeared on BBC show Antiques Roadshow, will be inspecting pictures, jewellery and valuables.

It is running from 2pm to 5pm. Entry is free, with valuations costing £5 per item.

Dinner for £1

ABINGDON: Twelve students from Abingdon School took part in the Live Below the Line schools challenge last Friday, where they had to eat and drink on just £1 for the day.

The boys had a diet of porridge for breakfast and egg fried rice for lunch.

The challenge was to highlight the fact that 1.2 billion people worldwide are forced to survive on a similar budget, and raised money for global charity Unicef.

OXFORDSHIRE DECIDES: ELECTION SPECIAL

VOTERS are heading to the polls today as they decide who will be their chosen representative in Parliament for the next five years.

Oxfordshire has six seats up for grabs: Oxford East, Oxford West and Abingdon, Witney, Wantage, Henley and Banbury.

Election candidates have been out in force campaigning over the past month as they compete for votes - door-knocking, speaking at events and taking part in dozens of hustings debates across the county.

At the 2010 elections the Conservative Party won five of the county's seats, with Labour's Andrew Smith triumphant in Oxford East.

The Liberal Democrats will be fighting to reclaim the Oxford West and Abingdon seat, which fell to Conservative Nicola Blackwood by less than 200 votes at the last election.

And national and international media will be interested in the outcome of the Witney count, where Prime Minister David Cameron is defending a majority of 22,740.

Candidates' parties key

- Conservative (C)
- Labour (L)
- Liberal Democrat (LD)
- Green (G)
- Ukip (U)
- Independent (I)
- National Health Action Party (NHAP)
- The Official Monster Raving Loony Party (MRL)
- Trade Unionist and Socialist Coalition (TUSC)
- The Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB)
- Reduce VAT in Sport (RVS)
- Wessex Regionalists (WR)
- Land Party (LP)
- Stop Emotional Child Abuse (SECA)

Witney

AS well as hoping he will still be Prime Minister after the election, David Cameron has to fend off competition from 11 other candidates.

- Colin Bex (WR)
- David Cameron (C)
- Duncan Enright (L)
- Andy Graham (LD)
- Nathan Handley (I)
- Deek Jackson (LP)
- Stuart MacDonald (G)
- Clive Peedell (NHAP)
- Vivien Saunders (RVS)
- Bobby Smith (SECA)
- Simon Strutt (U)
- Chris Tompson (I)

Oxford East

NINE candidates have put their name forward for the Oxford East seat, which has been held by Andrew Smith since 1987.

- Chaka Artwell (I)
- Ann Duncan (G)
- Mad Hatter (MRL)
- Ian MacDonald (U)
- Melanie Magee (C)
- James Morbin (TUSC)
- Alasdair Murray (LD)
- Kevin Parkin (SPGB)
- Andrew Smith (L)

Wantage

CHALLENGERS from four parties are hoping to steal Ed Vaizey's Wantage seat, which also covers Didcot, Faringdon and Wallingford.

- Alex Meredith (LD)
- Kate Prendergast (G)
- Lee Upcraft (U)
- Ed Vaizey (C)
- Stephen Webb (L)

Henley

FIVE candidates are in the running for the Henley seat, currently occupied by John Howell.

- Sue Cooper (LD)
- John Howell (C)
- Chris Jones (U)
- Sam Juthani (L)
- Mark Stevenson (G)

Oxford West and Abingdon

NICOLA Blackwood will be looking to defend her very small majority that won her the Oxford West and Abingdon seat in 2010.

- Nicola Blackwood (C)
- Sally Copley (L)
- Mike Foster (SPGB)
- Alan Harris (U)
- Layla Moran (LD)
- Helen Salisbury (NHAP)
- Larry Sanders (G)

Banbury

WITH Sir Tony Baldry stepping down as Banbury's MP after more than 30 years, residents are guaranteed a new representative in parliament.

- Dickie Bird (U)
- Roseanne Edwards (NHAP)
- John Howson (LD)
- Ian Middleton (G)
- Victoria Prentis (C)
- Sean Woodcock (L)

OXFORDSHIRE DECIDES: ELECTION SPECIAL

District council candidates: Abingdon, Wantage, Grove, Didcot

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

AS well as the general election, residents in South Oxfordshire, Vale of White Horse, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell are also voting to elect their district councillors today between 7am and 10pm.

All of South and Vale's seats are up for grabs, along with 17 in each of West Oxfordshire and Cherwell.

The four councils are currently controlled by the Conservatives, with the party enjoying a comfortable lead in Cherwell, South Oxfordshire and West Oxfordshire.

It is closer in the Vale of White Horse, where the Liberal Democrats – who controlled the council until 2011 – are six representatives behind the Conservatives.

The results of the district council votes will be announced tomorrow evening.

Listed below is the candidates standing in Abingdon, Didcot, Wantage and Grove.

Revellers dance in Oxford's May Day

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORD partied in unison to welcome the arrival of spring at the annual May Day celebrations on Friday morning.

Revellers trawled from the city's bars with tired eyes to join the mass hub of the early morning risers, which wrapped itself around Magdalen Tower and across Magdalen Bridge.

A crowd of about 5,000 gathered under the tower before 6am, some with drinks in hand, and others scanning the scene videoing every moment.

The bells struck and at once the noise died to a respectful hum as choristers of the Magdalen College choir sung the centuries-old Hymnus Eucharisticus as the sun rose.

Thousands below looked up in awe, with cheers filling the air whenever the singing paused.

The singing kick-started a cacophonous party atmosphere as the thousands split into dancing parties.

John Tinsman, an Oxford University student from Iowa, said: "This is truly a day where students can let our hair down."

Students who managed to stay up all night ran through High Street as brass band Folks of Plenty took centre stage marching along the road with residents dancing alongside them.

Oxford's folk music scene was on show as groups emerged from street corners, encouraging a party atmosphere.

Rachel Capell, Oxford City Council (OCC)'s events and international links officer, said: "Events like this unite the whole city which is really wonderful, there is nothing quite like it anywhere else in the country."

Crowds spread through the city centre and Morris dancing drew spectators to the historic Radcliffe Camera whilst others linked arms to the music.

May Day dates to the 1600s when a song composed by a fellow of Magdalen College was sung at the top of the college's tower by 16 college choristers.

The tradition continued and the hymn has been sung every year since as the sun rises on May 1, followed by bells ringing out around the city.

Peter McQuitty, OCC's head of policy, culture and communications, said: "The morning provides magical moments – beautiful singing, architecture and the promise of spring."

May Day success

ORGANISERS praised the way Oxford handled May Day after the reoccurrence of accidents in recent years.

No incidents were reported during Friday's day of celebration, planned Oxford City Council.

Stewards kept watch to prevent residents jumping into the river, which has led to several incidents in the past, and handled a 5,000 strong crowd.

Rachel Capell, Oxford City Council's (OCC) events and international links officer, said: "It's gone really well, everybody seemed to be really enjoying it and it was such a comfortable atmosphere that felt incredibly traditional.

"It's a lot of organisation for such a small moment, though the impact of it on the city is huge."

She added crowds had been respectful during Magdalen choir's performance: "You could hear a pindrop just before the choir sang, it was a beautiful moment.

"Events like this have the opportunity to unite the whole city and single out the 'Englishness' of Oxford."

Peter McQuitty, OCC's head of policy, culture and communications, said: "The council is proud to be able to support and promote activities like this across the city."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Gold stolen

GARSINGTON: Gold jewellery, an iPad, iPhone and a Playstation 4 were stolen from a house in Oxford Road last Wednesday between 3.15pm and 4.30pm after thieves smashed a rear door window.

£1k raised

OXFORD: Customers and staff at an Oxford pub raised more than £1,000 for charity after completing the Spring Monster Race obstacle course at Cornbury Park, near Charlbury.

The team from the Duke of Monmouth, in Abingdon Road, tackled 50 obstacles over a 10km route for Oxford hospice Helen and Douglas House.

Pub manager Simon Foster said: "It was very tough going but a fantastic experience, and every step was worth it."

Two burglaries

WEST OXON: Two houses in Bampton and Deddington were targeted in distraction burglaries last Wednesday.

At 8pm, two men went to a house in Mount Owen Road, Bampton, and claimed there was a problem with the taps. It is unknown what was stolen.

And at about 9pm, two men stole jewellery after entering a house in Hopcroft Lane, Deddington, after saying the house next door was flooded.

'Residents say no to green belt building'

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

• The land proposed for development at Grenoble Road

MORE than three quarters of Oxfordshire's population does not think the green belt should be built on, according to the Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE) Oxfordshire.

Oxfordshire's councils are reviewing the green belt around Oxford as they try to identify land to build housing.

But CPRE Oxfordshire said a poll they conducted found 76 per cent of residents believe the green belt should stay undeveloped, with just 12 per cent saying development within it should be permitted.

Helen Marshall, director of CPRE Oxfordshire, said: "Put simply this research is a ringing endorsement that the general public are supportive of retaining the Oxford green belt.

"It is time now for our local councils to accept that the overwhelming majority of us want the green belt to remain open, and particularly not used for new housing development."

Last year Oxfordshire's Growth Board commissioned the Strategic Housing Market Assessment (SHMA), which said that 100,000 new houses would be needed across the county within the next 16 years.

The SHMA added that between 24,000 and 32,000 of those homes would be needed in Oxford itself.

But Ms Marshall added: "The fact is, enough houses are already being built in the city to meet the housing needs of families already here, and if necessary, the city has room for thousands more without using green belt land."

The Oxford green belt extends around the city as far as Abingdon and Kidlington.

One of the sites being considered for development in the green belt is land south of Grenoble Road, where Oxford City Council are preparing plans for 4,000 homes on the site.

And Bob Price, leader of the city council, said that developments like Grenoble Road were necessary to help meet Oxford's housing need.

He said: "The housing crisis in Oxford is sufficiently dramatic for a very many people who want to rent or to buy – they simply can't afford it.

"The green belt wasn't meant to be a landscape designation ever, it was meant to be a planning requirement that any changes to the green belt could be carefully examined before they went through.

"In the context of Oxford, the particular piece of land south of Grenoble Road is of low landscape value – it has a sewage works next to it and electricity pylons running across it. From that point of view, it's exactly the kind of thing which the legislation allows to be reviewed."

Work begins on new £3.5m park and ride

WORK on a new £3.5m Bicester Park and Ride scheme will begin early this month with a target finish date before Christmas.

It will have 580 parking spaces and be the first of its kind in Oxfordshire outside Oxford.

It is to be built on the A41 at Vendee Drive to tackle traffic congestion in the town.

Earlier this year, preparatory work began on the site involving drain clearance, and hedge cutting.

Archaeological work has started before the build proper begins this month.

Mark Kemp, deputy director in Oxfordshire County Council's environment and economy directorate, said: "A lot of work has been progressing in the background and it will be good to see the project gather pace. We anticipate the park and ride to be in operation before the busy Christmas period, which is an ideal time given how busy the town is during those weeks."

Traffic was notoriously chaotic in Bicester Village last Christmas with shoppers queuing for miles to get into the shopping centre.

The park-and ride was a condition of Bicester Village's expansion plans.

Schools chain changes its Isis name

AN OXFORD-BASED chain of language schools and education providers has had to re-brand due to the negative connotations its name implied.

Blake Morgan's intellectual property team have carried out clearance searches for Isis Education, which has led to it changing its name to Oxford International Education Group.

The chain's original name was taken from the part of the River Thames that flows through Oxford.

Events in Syria and Iraq have led to difficulties for the school's staff during international events as they wore branded T-shirts with the chain's former name.

The chain runs thousands of courses for overseas students and has seen setbacks in recruiting students, particularly those from the Middle East.

Jill Bainbridge, of the intellectual property team, said: "The organisation is among a number of organisations that have felt compelled to change their name.

"When a organisations makes any changes to its name its important that potential rights issues are thoroughly researched."

Oxford's Fellows

• (top, from left) Rory Collins, Benjamin Davis, Alison Etheridge and Jane Langdale, and (bottom, from left) Philip Maini, Gero Miesenböeck, Jonathan Pila and Henry Snaith (Jonathan Pila picture courtesy of CJ Mozzochi, Princeton NJ)

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

EIGHT academics from Oxford University have been appointed to the Royal Society for their contribution to science.

They are among 47 new Fellows who were announced by the society last Friday, with the eight from Oxford the highest total from any individual city in the country.

Sir Rory Collins was appointed for his studies into statins that have helped prevent millions of heart attacks annually.

Professor Benjamin Davis was chosen for his work on the chemical manipulation of biological systems.

Professor Alison Etheridge was made a Fellow for her contributions in the theory of probability in maths and statistics.

Professor Jane Langdale has transformed the understanding of how plants make leaves.

Professor Philip Maini has been appointed for his research into biology and medicine.

Professor Gero Miesenböeck pioneered the science of optogenetics – the study of light and living cells.

Dr Jonathan Pila was chosen for his research into mathematical logic and geometry.

And Professor Henry Snaith was appointed for his discovery of thin-film solar cells.

Sir Paul Nurse, president of the Royal Society, said: "The scientists elected to the Fellowship of the Royal Society this year are leaders in their fields.

"We are delighted to welcome them alongside the likes of great British scientists such as Newton, Boyle and Darwin."

Pizza lovers

OXFORD: Oxford is the home of the UK's pizza lovers according to a new study by Papa Johns UK pizza chain.

Almost half of the city's residents eat at least one takeaway pizza a week, the study found.

Monday was also highlighted as the day of the week when Oxford orders the famed Italian creation most often.

Damaged car

OXFORD: British Transport Police (BTP) are appealing for information after a car belonging to a 77-year-old man was damaged at Oxford rail station.

The owner of a blue-grey Honda Jazz parked the car in a disabled bay in the north side of the station's main car park at 10am on April 6.

He came back at 4pm to see damages to the front driver's side of the car and scratches to the wing.

Charity wins

OXFORD: An Oxford charity had been voted as charity of the year by Templars Square shopping centre.

Sobell House Hospice has won the accolade which commits the centre to raising £10,000 over the coming months through fundraising events.

Estate vandals

BICESTER: Buildings on the Southwold Estate have been vandalised by a graffiti trail.

Between April 24 and 25, offenders defaced properties, fences and an electrical substation with what is believed to be a new graffiti tag being used in the area (below).

Anyone who recognises it or has any details is asked to call PCSO Kate Ford on 101.

College bond

OXFORD: An Oxford University college has become the first UK institution to issue a bond in 2015.

The £40million bond, launched last week by University College, carries a coupon of 3.1 per cent. The debt is lower yielding than any on record for a UK university, according to finance company, Dealogic.

The college stakes a claim as Oxford's oldest college and joins universities, including Cambridge, that have tapped bond markets for funding.

Council u-turn on Littlemore homes

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

PLANS to build 270 homes in Littlemore will now go ahead, after their refusal was overturned by Oxford City Council last week.

Last month the council's East Area Planning Committee had voted to turn down the proposals for the site south of Armstrong Road, citing concerns of overdevelopment.

But the decision was called in to be looked at again, and last Wednesday the Planning Review Committee decided by five votes to two to grant the development outline planning permission.

This was despite concerns being raised about a lack of public transport connections and the nearby road infrastructure.

The committee's chair James Fry, who voted in favour of the application, said: "We had a very difficult choice.

"We need, in the city, to build more houses, and I was swayed by the argument that we as a city should do our bit in terms of housing because we are going to be requesting the neighbouring councils to absorb a chunk of Oxford's extra housing needs.

• The land south of Armstrong Road

"The main objections were all about transport, but it was ultimately a choice between residents who objected strongly to the impact on transport and the need for housing."

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust submitted the plans to the council, as the land in question was formerly used by Littlemore Hospital.

They are looking to build 104 houses and 166 flats on the land, going up to five storeys in height.

Mark Trumper, the trust's director of development and the estate, said: "The trust is very pleased that the planning application was approved.

"This will deliver much needed new housing, and help Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust to accelerate key health care development for the benefit of Oxfordshire residents."

Starters orders for Bike Oxford

BIKE Oxford will get pedals pushing for its second year on September 13.

The start and finish has been confirmed as Cherwell School in Marston Ferry Road.

The school is home to Oxford Harlequins rugby club and has taken a huge interest in promoting cycling in the county, as they have the highest number of students that regularly cycle to school in the UK.

The routes, of which there is a choice of 25, 50 and 100 miles, will go through Oxford before heading north into the countryside.

Jon Revis, of Cowley Road Condors cycling club, said: "Last year, it was a fantastic social cycling event and the set up in the event village was really nice to sit and reminisce after the event."

Feed stations will be set up along the route and riders will be presented with finishers medals.

Registration is now open.

WIN a 'Big Game' movie goodies pack!

ACTION movies don't come much hotter than Samual L. Jackson's latest thriller.

Released today, Big Game has an epic plot that will keep you glued to the action. With Jackson's usual excellent performance boosted by the traditional explosions and non stop action there is one key difference to the role of his partner - this time its a 13yr old boy!

When Air Force One is shot down by terrorists leaving the President of the United States stranded in the Finnish wilderness, there is only one person around who can save him - a 13-year old boy called Oskari. In the forest on a hunting mission to prove his maturity to his kinsfolk, Oskari had been planning to track down a deer, but instead discovers the most powerful man on the planet in an escape pod. With the terrorists closing in to capture their own "Big Game" prize, the unlikely duo must team up to escape their hunters. As anxious Pentagon officials observe the action via satellite feed, it is up to the President and his new side-kick to prove themselves and survive the most extraordinary 24 hours of their lives.

WIN GOODIES!

We have fantastic goodie bags available for four of our readers and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer the following simple question:

Q: In what rugged country does the action of Big Game take place?

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Paul Merton and co.

• Paul Merton

KNOWN for his improvisation skills and very loud shirts, Paul Merton will be putting guests on the spot when his Impro Chums visit Oxford's New Theatre tomorrow evening, Friday May 8.

The witty 57-year old, along with fellow comics Lee Simpson, Richard Vranch, Mike McShane and Paul's wife Suki Webster, will take suggestions from the audience to create wacky scenarios.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Because of the nature of improv, a different show is guaranteed every night.

"We don't have to learn any lines, we can do it all off the top of our heads and that's an absolute joy," Paul said.

"People ask me why I do the Comedy Store Players and the Impro Chums and the answer is that it keeps me match-fit.

"If I go away on holiday for two weeks, I come back to find that everyone else has sped up 10 per cent and it takes me until the interval to catch up and jump on the bus.

"There is such a thrill in the notion of playing, say, a Bulgarian lion-tamer trying to explain in fractured Spanish that the yoghurt in the fridge has gone off.

"It's a complete delight."

The comic, who is perhaps best known for being a panellist on the satirical TV show 'Have I Got News For You', was first inspired to enter comedy after watching circus clowns perform at a very young age.

However, after leaving school with A-Levels in English and History, the funnyman worked as a clerical officer for seven years before making his way into show business, which is where he changed his name from Paul Martin to Paul Merton upon joining equity.

Since then, the comedian hasn't looked back and has starred in many comedy shows, including the British version of popular improvisation show 'Whose Line Is It Anyway?'

"As a child, you don't need much," Paul revealed.

"I remember as a young boy pushing a toy car up an armchair and suddenly it became a mountain. Kids often unpack a Christmas present and end up playing with the box.

"Impro is like playtime – the bit of school you liked!

"If you spark each other off in improvisation, it creates a really good spirit.

"It's the spirit of the playground."

"I feel I should say at the end of every show, 'don't worry – this will never happen again!'"

The show is suitable for anyone over the age of 16, and begins at 8pm.

Uninformed Opinions

ACTRESS, writer and comedienne Jo Caulfield will be stopping off at The Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot this Saturday, May 9.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The 51-year-old will be visiting the Station Road venue as part of her 'Uninformed Opinions' tour.

"If you like to shout at the TV then this is the show for you," Jo told the Guardian.

"'Uninformed Opinions' takes a look at what we know, what we don't know, who we think should keep quiet and as usual, some very embarrassing confessions revealing my own stupidity.

"I am constantly amazed by the amount of arrogant and ignorant people there are in society. I'm an idiot but I know it.

"These people don't know even know they're idiots and, even more scarily, some of them are in charge."

Deciding she wanted to get into comedy, the comic worked as a waitress during the day, saved up her tips, bought a small mic and amp, and opened her own comedy club in Hampstead.

Then when she met her future partner, the couple agreed a two-year plan to either make it as successful comedians or give it up.

After a successful run of gigs, the comic found herself writing for Graham Norton and doing a BBC Radio 4 show, whilst also appearing on shows such as 'Mock the Week', 'Have I Got News For You' and regularly appearing at The Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

"I had no idea what I was doing." Jo said.

"I became hooked on stand up from the very first time I did it and luckily I had nothing to fall back on.

"I have no other skilled job I can do, so I just kept at it."

Saturday's show starts at 8pm.

King's Speech

JASON Donavan stars in The King's Speech, which will be at the Oxford Playhouse from Monday, May 11 to Saturday, May 16.

It is based on the true story about King George VI's stutter, and asks: Will the King of England overcome his speech impediment?

Shows start at 2.30pm, 7.30pm and 8pm.

Bryan Ferry

AFTER his performances at Glastonbury and Coachella last year, singer Bryan Ferry will be at Oxford's New Theatre this Saturday, May 9.

The 69-year-old, who has released 15 albums since 1973, is currently on a 20-date tour across the UK.

Tickets cost from £39.90 to £69.90, with the show starting at 7pm.

Arcane Roots

THREE piece rock band Arcane Roots will be bringing their loud sound to Oxford's O2 Academy this evening, Thursday, May 7.

The group, who formed back in 2007, will perform hits from their debut album 'Blood and Chemistry'.

Tickets cost £12.50, with the gig starting at 7pm.

Wilder and Mole's big journey home

CREATED and performed by the Birdsnest Theatre Company, children's production 'My Friend Mole' will be making its way to Didcot's Conerstone Arts Centre on May 10.

The comical and light-hearted fable will see a young girl called Wilder and her imaginary best friend Mole try and leave Wilder's house as it's incredibly noisy.

The youngster then decides that the best place to escape to is Mole's house, which is where the two embark on a mission to get to Mole's home in the middle on the night.

"We see theatre for young children as an opportunity for them to really indulge their imaginations," co-founder, co-director and designer Emily Austen told the Guardian.

"We want our shows to create the atmosphere of a bedtime story - an environment where a child feels safe and relaxed, a space where they and their parents or carers can be carried away, lost in the story.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"We believe in making theatre which captures the imagination of all who come see it.

"So if it's a good show then everyone will enjoy it, no matter how old you are.

"The subject matter is focused on a theme more relevant to children but we believe it's a production that all can enjoy."

Formed back in 2011, the Birdsnest Theatre Company have put on three different shows with their first two productions, 'Wash' and 'Blown Away', achieving relative success when the shows toured across the UK a couple of years ago.

Its popularity in Great Britain proved to be key for the relatively new theatre company, as both plays then made their European debut tours and being performed in the Netherlands, Romania and Italy.

But despite the glamour of performing continentally, Emily revealed that the theatre company are looking forward to be returning to the Station Road venue.

"Cornerstone was one of the first theatres to show our work on the first tour of our first show so we're really excited to be returning," she said.

"There is a mutual recognition to deliver high quality work for very young children and Cornerstone really understood that."

Two shows are taking place at 11am and 2pm, and the production is suitable for children over the age of three.

ANCIENT HEALING PRACTICES OF INDIA
The retreat will help you unveil what may be hidden deep within you, enabling you to get in contact with those parts of you that are asking to be held and healed. With this aim we will engage in yogic exercises that include meditation and inner work, that draw on the methods taught by the shamanic traditions of India, including those of the mystical Babas and Fakirs. The Shamans of India are many and many are their methods. There is a wide range of breath, body, and mantra practices that we will be going into very deeply as part of the retreat.

TRY ORIENTEERING AT UNIVERSITY PARKS
www.tvoc.org.uk
"If you fancy a new outdoor activity for all the family, why not give orienteering a go. This event is organised by Thames Valley Orienteering Club and it's ideal for families and children.
There will be several courses and plenty of help on hand for newcomers. There will be six courses to choose from, from 1km up to 5km, taking around 30-75 mins to complete, plus a special string course for very young children, where they follow a line of string to find fun characters.
If you've never tried orienteering before, it's a bit like a treasure hunt to find a series of checkpoints around your chosen course. They're marked by flags on the ground and you register each one with an electronic timing chip to record your progress, and prove you've been to them! The challenge arises by there being no set route between the checkpoints and you have to choose your own way, using a detailed orienteering map of the park.
It's great fun and the events are supported by Oxford City Council and Up and Running in Oxford, who have supplied some great prizes. Come along any time between 10.00am to 11.30am and don't forget your sense of adventure! The cost is £6 per family group, or £2 for solo juniors.

Volvo release new twin engine model

REVIEW: Volvo XC90 T8 Twin Engine

By James Richings

FIRST introduced at the 2002 North American International Auto Show, the Volvo XC90 has gone on to become Volvo's top-selling vehicle in the US, selling over 85,994 units.

Now, after its success over the last 13 years, the Swedish manufacturer has announced that a plug-in hybrid of the vehicle has been introduced for petrol heads to buy this year; the Volvo XC90 T8 Twin Engine.

It can go from 0 to 62mph in 5.6 seconds.

The XC90 T8 also offers five different driving modes that deliver a range of performance and efficiency-enhancing characteristics.

Using either a scroll wheel on the centre console or a touchscreen on the dashboard, drivers can choose from the Hybrid, Pure Electric, Power, AWD or Save mode.

The Hybrid mode is the default mode, which is suitable for everyday use.

The vehicle will automatically alternate between drawing power from the two-litre, four-cylinder Drive-E engine and the electric motor for the best fuel consumption.

Pure Electric is when the high-voltage battery is fully charged; it serves as the car's sole energy source.

The XC90 T8 has a range of up to 26 miles using just electricity.

A regenerative braking system also means it is super-efficient in the stop-and-go traffic of city environments.

If more power is needed, the Drive-E combustion engine starts up automatically. When in the Power mode, drivers get the combined performance of the combustion engine and the electric motor.

On start-up, the SUV takes advantage of the electric motor's superior response and instant torque curve, while the combustion engine gets up to speed.

This combination offers better torque at lower revs, equivalent to that of a large displacement engine like the V8.

The AWD mode offers constant all-wheel drive on demand. The advantage of being able to select AWD manually is that the driver can use it when needed, or choose to save energy for later.

If the battery is charged, save mode allows the driver to "freeze" the battery level and save it for later use with Pure Electric drive. Also, if the battery is low, the driver can use the combustion engine to charge the battery to a certain level for later use with Pure Electric drive.

"We have been working hard to earn our competitive edge and to give our customers the ultimate combination of performance and low fuel consumption," Dr Peter Mertens of the Volvo Car Group said.

"Our Twin Engine technology has enabled us to build on our heritage of efficient powertrain development in a completely new way, and thanks to our world class four-cylinder engines, we have a clear and leading position."

Johnsons Hyundai are proud to present its updated range for 2015.

Join us this weekend for a unique opportunity to put the new Hyundai range through its paces. Whether you want to test the new inspirationally engineered i20, the Genesis with everything you ever desired, or the brand new facelift i30 and i40 with their sculpted good looks, here at Johnsons Hyundai now is your chance.

From 8th – 10th May all of our New Generation cars are ready to be test-driven and reviewed. So how about it? Come hang out with the new kids on the block.

RAPIER EMPLOYMENT

P&G Gillette

Gillette Research & Development
Precision Engineer Role, Reading UK

Concept Prototyping Group is responsible for partnering on the development of early stage product prototypes and bespoke scientific research equipment.

We have an exciting role working closely with Design Engineering and Scientist colleagues on varied projects within a portfolio that supports the innovation pipeline for the business.

In the role you will be largely workshop based, where you will execute component and assembly manufacturing ranging from one-offs to small batch sizes. Also you will partner with colleagues to develop ideas and translate design concepts into manufacturable solutions.

In order to do this, you will have the ability to work both with and without drawings, be CAD/CAM literate and have extensive skills on a range of machine tools and diverse machining processes. CNC programming experience is also essential. Ideally experience from a tool making, instrument making or model making background with comprehensive Apprenticeship foundations is desired.

In addition to your practical skills and aptitude, you will also need to have excellent communication skills to build effective working relationships with colleagues around the business. We expect you to be able to work independently to put forward your own ideas and to manage your own design projects.

As well as competitive salaries, the organisation offers substantial scope for personal growth and development and a class leading and flexible benefits package including; defined contribution pension scheme with life assurance, share ownership scheme, private healthcare, and an annual leave entitlement of 24 days

Attractive Compensation and Benefits – please enquire for further details

If interested, please apply via www.experiencepg.com quoting ref:

Super Roofe strike gifts United final win

A SUPERSTAR goal from Oxford United's in-form forward Kemar Roofe sent fans home dizzy with delight as they finished the season off in style with a 1-0 away win at Newport County on Saturday.

Roofe's wonder-strike meant United closed their Sky Bet League Two campaign with an impressive eight-game unbeaten run to finish 13th out of 24 teams.

Roofe's sixth goal in seven matches proved to be the difference between the two sides, despite Newport's Mike Flynn being sent off towards the end of the first half.

Michael Appleton's 13th place finish is four places off last season's ninth place and the U's will be hoping that their sixth consecutive League Two season will continue their impressive end of season form come July.

Appleton once again played

Andy Whing as a defender with Jonny Mullins still out injured and Whing (who took the armband) once again did a dependable job as the U's back four held firm throughout the 90 minutes.

Chey Dunkley and Alex MacDonald both tested Newport keeper Jaime Stephens early on as Roofe rampaged through the defence.

However, Newport also showed early intent with Miles Storey dragging his shot wide from a corner as County looked to hit United on the counter-attack.

United keeper Jamie Ashdown was then called into action as he tipped over Storey's effort before United charged the County defence through Roofe on the half hour mark.

Roofe was played in on the right flank by Danny Rose and instead of electing to play top-goalscorer Danny Hylton in, Roofe inexplicably launched a powerful thunderbolt into the top right corner, stunning the home crowd.

County looked for a reply and Dunkley had to be alert to head County's Kevin Healey header off the line from a corner.

County's afternoon then got worse as Flynn's late challenge on Michael Collins, after a quickly taken United free kick, resulted in a red for the County stalwart.

United inevitably dominated possession in the second-half but Feely still managed to test Ashdown with another fiery header.

Appleton sent on 19-year-old youngster Sam Humphreys for his senior debut but he was unable to make much of an impression as Newport threw every man forward in search of an equaliser.

Thankfully for United, it never came and Appleton's men rejoiced at the whistle.

Heads now turn to a summer of recuperation before United look towards an assault on the promotion places.

Student wins place on established scheme

OXFORD University Cricket Club's Lloyd Paternott has been selected for the MCC University scheme.

The opening batsman, an Oxford Brookes student studying international tourism management, will join esteemed former students such as former England captain Andrew Strauss.

The 23-year-old was chosen as part of the combined MCC Universities side that toured Abu Dhabi this march.

He'd also notched an unbeaten 42 as Oxford's MCCU took on a Surrey side filled with England internationals.

Paternott said of the scheme: "Being on this scheme means you get to test yourself against the best, whereas before you might have been trying to get an autograph."

Since 2005 the MCC has funded and administered six university cricket academies in England and Wales, giving each MCCU £92,700 per year to run their playing programmes.

Paternott added: "I think most people would die to have a chance at being in the MCCU."

Captain Corker signs new deal

LONDON Welsh captain Matt Corker has signed on for a ninth season, providing a boost to the side as they look to prepare for next season in the Greene King IPA Championship.

The celebrated ex-Wasps lock has made 223 appearances for the Exiles over the course of his eight-year career with Welsh, and made a total of 14 appearances this season.

Corker joins the 13 other Welsh players to have re-signed for the club for next season, in addition to nine new Exiles signings, as they continue their recent flood of transfer activity.

Corker will also take on an extra role next season as he will combine playing duties with a line-out coach role.

He was made club captain in the 2013/14 Championship season but made only 14 appearances after being diagnosed with Atrial fibrillation, a heart condition that affects the heart rate.

Corker said after the announcement: "I am really pleased to have re-signed with London Welsh and extend my time with the club that I love so much, and I am thankful to Steve Lewis and the board for giving me the opportunity to do so."

Steve Lewis, Exiles' director of rugby, said: "He is hugely respected by players, coaches and supporters alike. His decision to commit to the club once again is a massive statement and hugely significant."

Welsh also secured Darryl Marfo, Harry Allen and Ryan Glynn for next season, it was announced yesterday whilst flanker Darren Waters committed to next season on Tuesday.

The Exiles' continue their Premiership campaign away at Northampton Saints on Saturday.

Exiles' Phillips hails 'huge belief' in squad

LONDON Welsh's head coach, Rowland Phillips has claimed there is huge belief in the Exiles squad after he signed a new deal for next season.

It was announced on Friday that the former Exiles player, who took over as head coach in March, had agreed a new deal to lead the Exiles in their campaign in the Greene King IPA Championship next season.

Phillips, an ex-Wales international, initially joined the club as a defence coach in November 2014 and has previous experience as head coach of Italian sides Aironi Rugby and Viadana in the Pro 12.

Phillips, speaking ahead of the weekend's game against Saints, said: "There is a huge belief in the squad.

"We're all trying to get the job done and show what we're all about."

Phillips was brought to the club as a player back in 1997 and was made captain by then manager Clive Griffiths, scoring 18 tries in 66 appearances.

loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The former number eight told the Guardian that despite the Exiles' dismal record in the Aviva Premiership this season, he believes the squad remains as determined as ever to improve.

He said: "Some of the scores may give people the opinion that we're not improving and that the results aren't changing.

"However, I believe this squad is full of determination and we're managing our disappointments much better."

Exiles' director of rugby Steve Lewis said: "In his short time as head coach, we have seen a massive upturn in performances on the pitch, we have no doubt he is the right man to lead us back to the Premiership."

Phillips said of the new deal: "We just sat down and just took it from there. It was just a case of being in the right place at the right time."

Ardley lift trophy after dominant Ascot performance

ARDLEY United ended the season victorious as they lifted the Bluefin Sports Challenge Cup after they put in a huge team performance to beat Ascot United 2-0 on Monday evening.

The result avenged last season's defeat by Ascot as Ardley delivered a victorious performance, albeit with only two substitutes on the bench.

Ascot were huge favourites for the game after they finished the season five places above Ardley in third.

However, Ardley delivered arguably their finest performance of the season with the underdogs battling away from the first minute.

In the 15th minute, Kieran Scott and Luke Ingram bamboozled the Ascot defence with quick passing before Scott's deflected shot flew past Ascots's Chris Grace to gift them the lead.

Ardley looked for a second straight after with Jon Gardner and Ingram narrowly coming close to extending the lead.

Ascot's first real chance didn't come until shortly before the half-time whistle as Ardley's Jack Harding saved well from a fiery Damien Markman shot.

Ascot's Daryl Maclean continued to be a nuisance to the Ardley defence in the second-half but they managed to keep him quiet.

Their hard work paid off as with just over 20 minutes to go, Ingram latched on to Gardner's weighted pass to fire Ardley into a 2-0 lead.

Ardley went on to lift the trophy, bringing a memorable end to an indifferent league campaign.

Smith battles to 8th in tricky Jerez race

OXFORD'S Bradley Smith executed a determined eighth place finish in a tricky contest in Jerez at the fourth round of the MotoGP World Championship last weekend.

The 24-year-old had started the race in Spain from 10th on the grid and superbly got himself up to eighth before the end of the first lap, before moving up to seventh by the end of the second lap.

However, despite maintain his race rhythm, Smith could not climb further up the grid and had to cross the finish line in eighth.

Smith remains seventh in the championship and was content enough to secure another top-eight finish.

He said after the race: "I am happy to get some valuable championship points in my pocket after the tricky weekend we've had.

"It's certainly not fun having challenging weekends like this one where every time you push, you risk falling.

"It's back to work tomorrow to find some answers in order to be back fighting again."

Smith's Yamaha Tech3 teammate Pol Espargaro brought better fortunes for the team, securing his best result of the season so far with a fifth place finish after securing first position in the morning's warm up.

Espargaro said: "It was a positive close to the weekend and I'm glad that I was able to get a strong result."

Smith will next be in action in a fortnight for round five of the championship as it heads to Le Mans.

Cup win for Nomads Development squad

OXFORD City Nomads Development lifted The Hellenic League chairman's reserves challenge cup on Tuesday night as they overcame a Holyport Reserves side in a 6-2 win.

The impressive Oxford side played well from the onset and went ahead through Liam Marshall's 20 yard lob over Holyport's Ryan Stevens.

City increased their lead five minutes later through Jordan Jennings, who steered a shot inside the far post.

Holyport hit back through Paul Rake's 25 yard curler before Liam Palfreeman made it 3-1 on the night before adding a fourth with a tap-in.

Oxford secured the cup through two further goals through Liam Marshall and a Tom Moore penalty, despite Holyport finding a second goal from a Paul Rake penalty, but the game was already up for Holyport by that time.

Thunder blast past Oxford

OXFORD RL were dismantled by Newcastle Thunder 36-20 in a ferocious encounter at Kingston Park on Sunday in League 1.

Thunder put seven tries past the Oxford RL posts and were the deserved winners in the tense confrontation.

A Jason Tail brace and double conversion from man-of-the-match Dayne Craig gave the hosts an early lead before Oxford's Dave Peterson and Danny Thomas rallied for the visitors with two tries, and they drew two points behind with a Nathan Kitson conversion.

The second half saw the hosts shift in gear and leapt into a commanding lead through tries from Stuart Kain, Josh Stoker, Craig and Jordan Meads.

With a further two conversions in hand, the hosts were out in the distance with a 28-10 scoreline which looked daunting for Oxford.

Sean Morris struck for Oxford soon after, rising highest on a fifth tackle but the Thunder defence blocked any further attempt to cut the deficit.

Thunder then slammed the door on any chance of an Oxford revival, as Craig scored his second try before Tom Capper sealed the points with five minutes to go.

Morris did bring some final cheer for the passionate Oxford crowd, as he ran from 60 metres out to snatch a fourth Oxford try, but it was too late for the Blues to hit back.

Cup victory

FOOTBALL: Blackbird Rovers secured themselves Oxford City FA's Premier Cup after beating Chequers 4-0 in the final.

Yasine Lanzini scored a brace for Rovers in the second-half to seal the victory after Arron Barrett and Wayne Desmond sent Rovers on their way in the first-half.

The win seals a silverware hat-trick for Rovers after lifting the league title and Oxfordshire Junior Shield.

Rovers could add a fourth at the weekend when they take on Black Swan in the Couling Cup Final at Abingdon Town.

Season tickets

OXFORD: Oxford United have dropped season ticket prices for the first time in its history.

Season tickets for U's fans will be between £15 and £10 cheaper than last season, with fans who purchased early bird tickets potentially saving themselves nearly £50.

Under-13 clubs fans are also set to profit with the first 250 who buy a ticket will be rewarded with next season's new home shirt.

For more information on tickets, go to oufctickets.co.uk.

Huge win

CRICKET: Minster Lovell defeated defending champions Cowley Internationals in a huge 133-run victory in their OCA Division 1 opener.

The youthful team hit 216-6 as Ed Dunns 68 and Connor Tinsley's 50 not out helped them to post 216-6 against Wheatley.

Cowley simply didn't turn up for the contest and only put 83 on the board with George French taking 5-12.

SAINTS CAUGHT UP IN STORM

Swindon breeze past 'terrible' Saints in huge home win

OXFORD Saints were blown away by rivals Swindon Storm 50-16 in a dominating performance in Wiltshire.

High off their superb comeback win 35-34 win over Bristol Apache in the previous weekend, Abingdon-based Saints were delivered a severe wake up call in poor conditions against a rampant Swindon side.

Swindon came into the game after a crushing 59-22 win over Torbay the previous weekend and continued the same vein of rich form as the Saints could barely get going in the dreary conditions.

The Saints offence, led by quarterback Ben Denton, charged out first but despite strong running from Kev Brooks and Mike Oluwole, couldn't reach the endzone.

The Storm then unleashed their offence as they looked to run the ball on most occasions, whilst the fullbacks blocked well and quarterback Dan Thorne was able to pick up yards with long throws

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A 78-yard drive resulted in a Storm touchdown and despite Denton looking to retaliate quickly, Swindon charged across the end zone again for a second touchdown, though both extra point attempts were blocked.

The home side looked to increase their 12-0 lead and after two interceptions, the Storm rushed a third touchdown.

Saints attempted to fight back but the Storm defence was too strong and just into the third quarter, Storm made it 32-0 with another touchdown drive and extra point attempt.

Saints finally got on the scoreboard later in the third quarter as Oxford moved the ball well and James Walter capped of a 15-yard drive with a touchdown and then hit a two-point conversion attempt himself.

The final quarter saw the Storm regain their potency and despite the Saints' Walter smashing into the endzone for his second touchdown and a two-point conversion, the Storm hit hard, going over after just five plays.

The Saints just could not hold off the Storm's attack and after two more rushing touchdowns, the Storm had finished the game off for a huge 50-16 win.

Saints defensive coach Andy Peart said: "It was such a disappointment to be honest, we did everything that we don't do in training.

"We're still trying to find the reasons why it happened, we did not play anywhere near the potential of these players.

"We were terrible, but we will respond in the right way.

"It will spurs us on and the players will want to put it right. We just simply weren't angry enough and up for the fight.

"But we will be, the players hated that and we play a lot better when we are angry.

The Saints are next in action at home against the Cornish Sharks on May 17.
